

While I am currently a member of the American Radio Relay League, I am opposed to RM-10413 in its entirety. The issues therein should be separated and then addressed with appropriate proposals.

As regards 'refarming of Novice subbands', reducing available bandwidth for spectrum-efficient digital modes, while increasing bandwidth for spectrum-inefficient (voice) modes, is nonsense.